NOTIFICATION

Sub: End Semester Examinations July 2020 – Conduct of Online Examinations for passed out students having arrear papers in the final semester courses - Reg.

To help passed out students having arrear papers (belonging to current regulation) in the final semester courses, VISTAS has decided to conduct online examinations starting from 1st July 2020.

Therefore, all the passed-out students having arrear papers in the final semester are advised to make suitable prior arrangements for Online Examination facilities at their respective places of residence. The Timetable for all the final semester courses is already shared with the department and posted in the university website for reference. The schedule of examinations for other backlog/arrear papers will be announced later.

Students are advised to be in touch the department and to check the University website regularly for necessary updates on the proposed online final semester examinations.
